Flex space

You're flexible and so is your workplace. You need somewhere you can access at all times. Prefer to work at the heart of our social hub? Or would you prefer a private office? All the options are provided for you.

Flexible workspace

Meeting rooms

Only pay for what you need. Completely free to set up your meetings as you wish; that's what HNK is all about. We don't have a set menu, just all of the facilities you could possibly need.

Meetings as you wish

Managed office

Open the door and your working day can begin. Well-equipped, full-service office with all mod cons. No high investments and yet still a fully-functioning office whether you rent it per hour, per day or per year.

Full service office

Bespoke office

Bespoke office means you can design your layout according to your needs, deciding the size and the location of the doors and walls. We will provide your office framework to whatever level of finish you need.
